

Imaging that Exploits Known Multipath Scattering

Margaret Cheney (RPI) and Robert J. Bonneau (AFRL)

Abstract

This talk considers linearized imaging, based on the distorted-wave Born approximation, in the case when the background medium contains a single known point scatterer. We show that in theory, the image resolution can be improved by including multipath scattering from the point scatterer